

Catholicism and History: The Opening of the Vatican Archives

VATICAN ARCHIVES

Vatican City holds 50 miles of ancient documents hidden from the public.

No browsing is allowed.

Theories surrounding what's contained inside include secret documents about Jesus Christ, alien beings, church involvement in wars and banks, and even child pornography.

No one knows exactly what's there.

Continual and sometimes heated interest is shown in the control by governments over documents in their possession, and in the time during which access to views represent a part, and only a part, of his research, and I am sure Paul Thompson would prefer to be known as an historian and not as an oral historian.
